

Charlene Mullins shares her story on AdamsPlace

Adams Place is no stranger for Charlene Mullins; she's been here two times before. Yet, she says every time is just as wonderful as the last, and the atmosphere never changes.

Mrs. Charlene is working on getting back on her feet after extensive foot surgery. She says hasn't been able to put any weight on it for the last three to four months.

That's what led her to choose Adams Place again; she says her therapists Nan Hatheway and Dinah Ramsey are wonderful – she has no doubt they will have her back to tip top shape and on her way home soon.

Every nurse and tech is a joy, and she says the kitchen staff is so friendly, they will even bring you anything you ask for. Everyone always has a smile on their face, and she says that's so important when you're down on your feet. The best part of Adams Place though according to Mrs. Charlene: Everyone treats you like family, making the hard part of therapy--being away from your family--not so hard.

Once she's healed, Mrs. Charlene is looking forward to returning to her husband of 53 years and enjoying their retirement. Together, they helped run the family business, Mullins Jewelry, on the square.

She says they have so many fond memories of the store, including raising their children there. Now, their son, Jeff, is continuing the family business with his own store, J. Mullins Jewelers.
